RE: SOLID WASTE COMPLAINT-#12-01

The Commissioners are meeting to hear complaint filed in the above Cause #12-01 as filed by the County Solid Waste District. Come now Brandon Huckelby and his father, John Huckelby, and Toni Lubbers, District Director, all of whom are placed under oath. Huckelbys are informed of allegation by Kimberly Gray that Brandon Huckelby had been paid to remove and dispose of trash bags from Gray residence. Pictures of bags and contents were shown and examined. Both Brandon and his father denied the allegation. Brandon stated that he had been compensated (by delivery of lawn mower) for moving items from residence to storage facility for Gray. Father was with Brandon for relocation to storage. Brandon said that there was trash everywhere in the house when he left. He also stated that he and Gray had formerly worked at same restaurant but that he no longer worked at that restaurant and is a full-time high school student. Kimberly Gray had been ordered to appear at this hearing but did not appear. The attorney was ordered to send another notice to Gray and Huckelby for continued hearing on October 1 or October 15, based upon timing of notice. The hearing was continued.
